CAROLYN M. MACORMAC

MAY 3, 1945-December 6, 2019 (Aged 74)

Born Carolyn Hardin in Cambridge, MA, Carolyn was raised and schooled in the Carolinas. After high school, she came out west and lived most of her life in northern CA in such communities as Concord, Benicia, and Placerville where she bought her dream house, an old Victorian. After a career with Pacific Bell/AT&T, she retired and traveled. She lived in Stagecoach, NV and even Vancouver, WA for short periods, before coming back to CA to her last home in Roseville. She loved many people including her life long friends from Pacific Bell and many things (including her dog Barkley). She is survived by her greatest love, her son Vernon and her four brothers.
