“ Uncle Pete, I’ve only known you for a few years but your presence and vibe have always been so genuine. Seriously the most genuine person I’ve had the pleasure of knowing. You always made me feel so welcome when I would visit. If you saw I was by myself at a family event because you can tell I was awkward and nervous you would always come talk to me and it was so natural. My heart grieves for the family for it now will never be the same. I am seriously so thankful for the short time I’ve known you and you will be so missed. You have made an impact on me in that short amount of time and I can only imagine if I were to have known you a little longer. Long live your name and legacy Uncle Pete - Alicia Feusi.
