“ Oh wow!! My Glo Glo I was hoping that this day that we spoke about many times would not have come so soon. My heart aches! I am keeping my promises that I made to you in the best of my ability. I will never leave you, I will cry a lot , I will play your song and all other promises. You were separated from me by distance. I know that In heart we were never separated. You are a very funny and misunderstood woman like myself. As I told you all the time, I love you and will continue to miss you my Mother, Daughter,Sister (thats Glo:)) I am so glad that I took the opportunity to pray with you as you accepted Jesus as Your Lord and Savior well over a year ago. I will see you in Heaven, where we will dance and praise together.Love, your Reeny+
