“ Jackie was a best friend to my mother, Geraldine. She was especially appreciated by me during my mother's last years in Sacramento. Jackie regularly came to help my mom with household chores and friendship.

“ Jackie and I have been friends for 65 years. We met when I went to work for what was then Sacramento County Hospital. I was a very naïve 18 year old straight out of high school. Jackie and all the other ladies that worked in the Eligibility Department of the hospital took me under their wing and guided me, advised me, and just looked out for me. They were all wonderful. It would take a book for me to list all the wonderful memories Jackie and I created, with our husbands, families, and travels. Jackie never forgot a birthday, anniversary or any celebration of any kind. She would drive me crazy when she would fill the cards with confetti. We shared many tears, both happy and sad and many celebrations. Jerry and my husband became best friends and we would get together and play Aggravation, after a few gin & tonics we were pretty much out of control. The kids would come and tell us to keep it down, they couldn't hear the TV. We will miss you and love you forever, RIP my friend until we meet again. Forever in our hearts.

“ I didn't know Jackie for very long, but heard a lot of stories from her and her friends/ family. I know she traveled extensively, and have no doubt she made many friends all over the world in her travels. Although she's gone now, while she was here she LIVED. Rest in peace, Jackie.

“ Aunt Jackie was an amazing lady. She was married to my dad's younger brother, Jerome, but she was never considered just an "in-law". She was an integral part of our family. I don't think I have known anyone who enjoyed life more, or got more out of it than her. Her world travels were legendary, so it was no surprise when she arranged a trip to Turkey to help celebrate my daughter's wedding. There are so many "Aunt Jackie" stories because of the wonderful adventurous woman she was. We will miss her deeply, but will always treasure the many loving memories we have of her. RIP Aunt Jackie. Love you.
