James Inman Obituary

James Randolph Inman 8/26/1955-6/25/2024 Beloved father, son, brother & friend. Survived by daughter Danielle Jones & grandpups Ruby & Louie, sister Gerry Inman & brother Robert Inman. The greatest gift in his & his family's life was the birth of his daughter Danielle. Jim was a Sacramento State graduate with a degree in Environmental Studies & Recreation, he made the Dean's Honors List. He spent much of his youth living in Japan & enjoyed learning about the local culture. Jim was involved in youth basketball & baseball. He was an avid sports fan & a diehard Lakers, Dodgers, and Rams fan. When the Kings came to Sac his loyalty became split, although in his heart, the Lakers would always have a slight advantage over the Kings. Jim was also a history buff & enjoyed sharing his knowledge of both history & sports with his daughter. He was a lover of all animals and family pets over the years, known as Papa Jim, aka the Treat Man. He enjoyed family trips to the Homewood cabin at Tahoe & time spent at Bodega Bay & Santa Cruz. He said he was one of the lucky ones who found his soul mate, his was Sonia Jones. Jim will be missed by his family, friends, and bar family, as well as all who had the pleasure to cross paths with him. Rest in love and peace.

“ January 30, 2026: So sad to discover that Jim has passed away. My family, including my brother Jerry and I, lived next door to Jim, his mom and dad and sister Gerry on Rycom Plaza Okinawa in 1971. We were good friends. My brother died in an accident there and we were relocated to Arizona. When Jim and his family returned stateside to Sacramento, they invited me to visit. I'll never forget San Francisco, Ghirardelli Square (and chocolate) Joe DiMaggio's Restaurant- it was like a dream - I was 14! Jim and family were wonderful hosts. We went camping in Lake Tahoe by Emerald Bay - I fell in love with the area and have lived nearby in Northern Nevada for the past 45 years. Jim was a good friend and I will always have fond memories. Years later he told me about his daughter Danielle and how much he loved her. I'm so sorry for your loss. My condolences to all of Jim's family. He was a good man.

“ Although we went through a rough patch the last few years, I always tried to let Jim know he was loved. I'll always treasure all the fun times we shared, family holidays, camping & fishing trips, exploring Japan & learning about it's culture, trips to Okuma & the "waterhole" in Okinawa, experiencing shrimp pizza at Top of the Rock and so many other great times. Thank you my brother for the most wonderful gift a family could have, a beautiful, loving, caring grandchild & niece. She has so enriched all of our lives, your legacy lives on. Miss you & love you little brother. Forever in my heart. Rest in Peace. ❤️
