“ Dear Ms. Ballew, I used to know a Joyce Hadley. If it's the same Joyce, she lived on 36th Street with her mother, Phillis, stepfather, and two younger brothers, David Hadley and Lawrence Duff. Sorry for your loss.

“ I just learned of Joyce's passing. I wish I would have known earlier. Joyce was always laughing and seemed so full of life. And... sooo smart. We were in junior high school and high school together. I have fond memories of her family and hanging out with her. She loved being a cheerleader. I'm very sorry to hear she's gone.
