“ Sure miss you Dad. I talk to you all the time. Your Grandbabies are getting so big. You just had a new grand son born. I will be sure to tell him stories about you. Bub has definitely inherited our fishing genes. I love you Dad and I'll be expecting you to meet me at the gates with a plate of smoked salmon and cheese. Just like the old days Dad. Your forever in my heart. You'd be SO DAMN proud of me today... Happy Birthday Dad
